Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. It is a day that we, as sinners, should embrace with every fiber of our being. Jesus died on the cross, not for the righteous, but for the sinners in the world. Thus, we should rejoice that we are part of that group that He carries so much about that He would sacrifice His life. We need the mercy of God. We need the forgiveness of God. We need the reconciliation of God. And He gives it without hesitation if we are just contrite. Contrition is a must if we are to receive the mercy of God. So let us celebrate this great feast day with hearts and minds renewed in contrition and thus receive the mercy of God.
