St. Elizabeth of Hungary

In her short life, Elizabeth manifested such great love for the poor and suffering that she has become the patroness of Catholic Charities and the Secular Franciscan Order. Despite her family's wealth and power, seeking to become one with the poor, she wore simple clothing. Daily she would give bread to hundreds of the poorest in the land who came to her. Elizabeth truly understood well the lesson Jesus taught—that is the Christian must serve the humblest needs with a humble heart.

RCIA

What is happening next Sunday at Mass for those ready to move forward in our parish's RCIA process?

The initial inquiry (precatechumenate) period for our parish's group of inquirers will be moving into the second stage, with our first opportunity for unbaptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens, and baptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Welcoming next Sunday. The first phase of the journey of initiation has been a time for seekers to hear the mystery of Christ proclaimed. The inquirers have consciously and freely sought the living God and entered the way of faith and conversion as the Holy Spirit opens their hearts. We ask you to please pray for the inquirers as they continue their conversion journey and for our RCIA process as we assist them in moving toward a closer relationship with God. Your prayers are critical to the success of our program. We will continue to keep you informed of the initiation process and progress of those considering joining the Church. We invite you to take an active role in welcoming our soon-to-be catechumens and candidates, and to be models of faith and Christian charity for them.

Many Thanks

Oct 27th Jim and Bea Albarado assisted by Leo Mushill set up a fantastic Cajun dinner for us in the church basement (which we had purchased at last year's School & Parish Auction). Everything was wonderful. I have been privileged to go to Louisiana including New Orleans on business trips over the years. This dinner was absolutely the best Cajun food I have ever eaten. Bea explained each course including how to eat each specific course. A BIG thanks to Jim, Bea and Leo! Rich Hayes
