RCIA

What is happening next Sunday at Mass for those ready to move forward in our parish's RCIA process?

The initial inquiry (precatechumenate) period for our parish's group of inquirers will be moving into the second stage, with our first opportunity for unbaptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens, and baptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Welcoming next Sunday. The first phase of the journey of initiation has been a time for seekers to hear the mystery of Christ proclaimed. The inquirers have consciously and freely sought the living God and entered the way of faith and conversion as the Holy Spirit opens their hearts. We ask you to please pray for the inquirers as they continue their conversion journey and for our RCIA process as we assist them in moving toward a closer relationship with God. Your prayers are critical to the success of our program. We will continue to keep you informed of the initiation process and progress of those considering joining the Church. We invite you to take an active role in welcoming our soon-to-be catechumens and candidates, and to be models of faith and Christian charity for them.

Prayer Group

Prayer Group will break for the holidays and resume January 10, 2023, 6:30 pm in the church. Everyone welcome!

A Meditation

DEFENSE ATTORNEY

"I bid you resolve not to worry about your defense beforehand."

-Luke 21:14

Doesn't the Word of God say to be ever ready to give a reply to those who question you about why you live a life of faith? (1 Pt 3:15) The Holy Spirit is the Paraclete (Jn 14:26), a term which can be translated as "Attorney for the Defense." Since the Holy Spirit is our Defense Attorney, we are actually stifling the Spirit (1 Thes 5:19) if we try to take over the Spirit's job. Let the Spirit prepare your defense. You need only to be His witness when called upon.

The Holy Spirit will remind us of all He taught us in advance (Jn 14:26; 16:13). The Spirit will teach us "what to say and how to speak" (Jn 12:49). The Spirit will do a far better job of defending us than we can ever do. So we can instead spend our time thanking and praising Him, and listening to His words. Then we can let God do His job. Our business is simply to follow Him (Jn 21:19).

It's the daily life of faith that prepares us. We can't think of all the ways others will challenge us, but the Spirit knows this in advance. When we are living in the Spirit and in a life of faithful prayer with a well-formed conscience, then whatever the Spirit brings to mind is what He wants said. Even with an incomplete formation of conscience, if we are docile to the Spirit, He has the power to bring the proper words to our mind.

Offer your life to God as a living sacrifice; then the Holy Spirit will renew and transform your mind (Rm 12:1-2).

Prayer: Holy Spirit, open my ears to hear Your voice, and open my lips to speak Your words.

Promise: "By patient endurance you will save your lives." —Lk 21:19

Praise: "The night shall be no more. They will need no light from lamps or the sun, for the Lord God shall give them light, and they shall reign forever" (Rv 22:5). Praise the risen Jesus!

Sometimes things happen in our lives that disrupt our normality, and just aren't good. But somehow, they will work together for good.

"And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."

Romans 8:28
