Mark Your Calendar!

We will have 'A Night of Praise and Thanksgiving', Sunday, November 27, 6:00 pm here in our church. We would like to show our thanksgiving to God and our appreciation to our namesake, Our Lady Queen of Peace, for the many blessings graciously poured out on us, as this year marks the 75th Anniversary of worship in this church building. Please join us for an evening of song, prayer and adoration, followed by an 'Old Fashioned Ice Cream Social'. We are asking for any pictures you might have of your wedding, confirmation, baptism, First Holy Communion, parish gatherings, etc. during these past 75 years. The pictures will be put together in a 'slide show' to be shown during this evening, and then returned to you. Simply drop off at the parish office or place in an envelope in the collection basket, noting your name on the back. Please join us in our thanksgiving with your presence on November 27. Questions, call Norm/Amy Frisch, 618-444-7715.

SCRIP News!

Sales To Resume after Mass Nov. 12/13

We have had some volunteers offer to sell SCRIP again, however, we are still in need of a few more, especially 4:30 Saturday and 8:30 Sunday Mass times. With enough help, no one would have to sell more than once a month. If you can help out with this, please call the parish office (618-377-6519) and let us know which Mass time you prefer. Thank you!

A Meditation

RISEN LIFE

"The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever."

2 Maccabees 7:9

Both today's first reading and the Gospel deal with life after death. Both show that we humans have no idea of what risen life will be like. In today's Gospel, the Sadducees demonstrate this by their misguided assumptions. They were "badly misled" and failed "to understand the Scriptures or the power of God" (Mk 12:24).

The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is an historical fact. It is not merely an idea. Throughout the centuries after Jesus rose from the dead, people have given their lives in martyrdom to defend the truth of Jesus' Resurrection. Numerous martyrs "were tortured and would not receive deliverance, in order to obtain a better resurrection" (Heb 11:35).

The key to life is to have an encounter with the risen Jesus. After we have met the risen Christ, we become "a new creation. The old order has passed away; now all is new" (2 Cor 5:17). Even in this earthly life, our lifestyle changes completely as we see everything through the perspective of the kingdom of God rather than with the eyes of the world (see Mt 6:19-34).

Since Jesus has risen, we who are baptized into Christ can share even now in this risen life (Col 1:10-13). Our life is hidden in Christ (Col 3:3). We are citizens of heaven (Phil 3:20) while living on this earth. Accept the risen Jesus as your Lord.

Prayer: Father, may I be far more confident in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ than I am in such earthly principles as the law of gravity.

Promise: "The Lord keeps faith; He it is Who will strengthen you and guard you against the evil one." —2 Thes 3:3

Praise: "If we have been united with Him through likeness to His death, so shall we be through a like resurrection" (Rm 6:5). Praise You, risen Jesus!

Do You Know Your Faith Answers

1. No. The souls in Heaven do not need our prayers for they are perfect in the beauty of Heaven.
2. Yes. Our prayers can help the souls in Purgatory to advance through the suffering in Purgatory to the bliss of Heaven.
3. No. The souls in Hell are beyond the help of our prayers.
4. Tongues
5. The Hail Mary

*Those who rely on God's strength cannot be broken.
His strength is perfect when our strength is gone.
He'll carry us when we can't carry on.*

"It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect."
2 Samuel 22:33
