Dear Parishioners,

This past week we celebrated Catholic Schools Week and also had our auction which benefited our school children and also our youth group. Obviously, it was a week in which we concentrated on the kids in our parish family. That is an emphasis that I fully and completely encourage and support. The kids of our parish our a valuable and vital part of our parish family, and the institutions of our parish that support this parish mission deserve our every support. I can say without hesitation that we are blessed to have such a dynamic school and youth group program. They are second to none in the diocese. Let us pray that they will continue to grow and strengthen in the years to come.
