Lo, the day
is coming,
blazing like
an oven,
when all the

all evildoers
will be stubble.

Dear Parishioners,

This Friday we celebrate the feast day of St. Cecilia. Besides being a very holy and saintly person, St. Cecilia has the added responsibility of being a patron saint of music. She certainly has been very active here at Our Lady Queen of Peace parish. I think that through her intercession, we have one of the best and strongest music ministries in the entire diocese. There are not many parishes that can match the quality and professionalism of the musicians and singers that give of their time and talent in service to our parish and our liturgies. I would like to thank all of them for their ministry and sacrifice for our parish family, and encourage all of you to do the same.

RCIA News

What is happening next Sunday at Mass for those ready to move forward in our parish's RCIA process? The initial inquiry (precatechumenate) period for our parish's group of inquirers will be moving into the second stage, with our first opportunity for unbaptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens, and baptized inquirers to go through the Rite of Welcoming next Sunday. The first phase of the journey of initiation has been a time for seekers to hear the mystery of Christ proclaimed. The inquirers have consciously and freely sought the living God and entered the way of faith and conversion as the Holy Spirit opens their hearts. We ask you to please pray for the inquirers as they continue their conversion journey and for our RCIA process as we assist them in moving toward a closer relationship with God. Your prayers are critical to the success of our program. We will continue to keep you informed of the initiation process and progress of those considering joining the Church. We invite you to take an active role in welcoming our soon-to-be catechumens and candidates, and to be models of faith and Christian charity for them.
