A Message From Our Principal

The first quarter has ended, and we already are a couple of weeks in to the second!! Just as time does, it has gone so quickly and all of us at the school have been having fun and accomplishing so much!! We just finished Red Ribbon Week! We did so many activities throughout last week with the purpose of making our students aware of the drug/substance abuse problem facing Americans today. We wore red ribbons all week, had an 'OLQP Students will never get mixed up in drugs' day by wearing 'mixed up clothes,' we formed a living Rosary in the gym to pray for those who are addicted to harmful substances, and we had a special Red Ribbon Week liturgy last Friday morning to wrap up the week. Also, last Friday, we had our annual Mission Carnival. It was a fun afternoon for everyone and all of the profits went to the HCA (Missions)! The Mission Carnival, at our school, takes the place of Halloween parties and all of our students are aware that while having fun and enjoying that afternoon, they are also helping make a difference in the lives of other people around the world. On October 16-18th, our 7th graders went to Space Camp in Huntsville, Alabama. Not only did our students receive many complements from the workers and other people about how well and respectful they behaved, but all of them had a blast on this educational, fun trip! Also, this past month the PSA had their first annual Music Trivia featuring Big Papa G. It was so much fun, and I hope it is a fund raiser that continues every year!!! In early October we raised money for fallen Trooper Nicholas Hopkins through our 'dress in blue' day as well as our Dodgeball tournament. Thanks to the generosity of our parents/grandparents, we raised 700.00 for his family! The biggest event coming up for us will be our Fall presentation of Aladdin. Our Drama Club has been working incredibly hard for many, many months to prepare for this! Thanks to Brony Hernandez and Becky DiPaolo for directing this play and allowing our students to get the experience of drama at OLQP!! TICKETS ARE ON SALE NOW IN THE SCHOOL OFFICE FOR 8.00 EACH. The play will be in our gym on Saturday, Nov. 2nd, with a 2:00 and 7:00 showing!! Come and enjoy Aladdin at one of the shows that day!! Finally, I continue to be amazed each day when I walk in the halls, in and out of classrooms, in the lunch room, and just all over the school, the tremendous amount of respect our students show for one another, the way everyone knows everyone and is treated like family, the amount of uninterrupted learning taking place all day long, and the fun our students have throughout the day on top of it all!! OLQP is a special school, and I thank all of our parents and parishioners for your continued support, both financially as well as through your prayers! We are always looking for new and innovative ways to get the word out, in the wider community, about the great things happening here every day!! Anything all of you can do towards that effort, is always appreciated!!! Until next time, God Bless and Go Knights!!!!
